d stands for design

Everyday, we see things differently than the day before. The world presents new questions seeking answers, new situations to be encountered, new problems requiring solutions that challenge us to create positive change. Design thinking skills teach us to see with new eyes to make a bright future possible.

You are a d_camp
creative genius!

We are super excited to see you in action! Come join us at:
Never Summer d_camp: Kinetics 2015.

d stands for design

An awesome design project awaits you and your team members at d_camp. Not going to spoil the surprise but here are a couple of hints... plastic bottles, string, tape and water! [Let your imagination run wild with possibility of what you could create using these items.]

Here are a few details to think about:

- When: July 20-23 from 1:00 pm to 4:00 pm.
- Where: Morgan Community College/
Ameritowne Center in Wray, Colorado.
- Who: d_camp is open to students entering 6th thru 12th grade in Fall 2015.
- Cost: $40 per camper and includes a way cool t-shirt. Space is limited!
- Registration deadline is June 30.

How can we convince you to give d_camp a try?
